OFFICE MEMORANDUM.

Sub:- Liberalisation of travelling allowance terms for Fourth grade employees.

The undersigned is directed to say that the Government of India have accepted the recommendation of the Central Pay Commission that there should be no differentiation between employees in Class IV service and other Government servants in the matter of tour and transfer travelling allowances. The Governor-General is accordingly pleased to decide that in partial modification of the rates of allowances admissible under the Supplementary Rules, Government servants in the fourth grade shall be granted travelling allowance at the following rates for journeys on tour and transfer:-

A. JOURNEY ON TOUR.

(i) Journey by railway:- The mileage allowance shall be $1\frac{1}{2}$ fares of the class to which the Government servant is entitled.

(ii) Journey by sea or river steamer:- The mileage allowance shall be $1\frac{3}{5}$ ths fares of the class to which the Government servant is entitled.

(iii) Daily allowance:- In view of the additional fares allowed under (i) and (ii) above, grant of daily allowance under S.R. 58 or S.R. 78(a) as well as the practice of granting such allowance at full rates to employees in Class IV service for halts exceeding ten days during journeys on tour (including journeys to hill stations) shall be discontinued and the instructions contained in this Ministry's letter No. F.5(44)-RI/33 dated the 12th May 1934 are cancelled. In the matter of drawal of the allowance at full or reduced rates during halts exceeding ten days, the employees in Class IV service shall be regulated by the orders applicable to other Government servants. General sanctions, if any, exempting the employees in Class IV service from the operation of S.R. 73 or S.R. 128 and which are still in force may be scrutinised and modified so as to conform to the orders applicable to other Government servants or cancelled where necessary.

(iv) The general provision in the first proviso to S.R. 67 which entitles a Government servant in fourth grade to the concession of drawing, in addition to permanent travelling allowance, single fare for a journey by rail, as well as the general provision in S.R. 184 which exempts such employees from the purview of S.Rs. 182 and 183 are withdrawn. In such cases, the concession referred to or the exemption from S.R. 182 or S.R. 183 shall, hereafter, be granted by the competent authority as in the case of Government servants in other grades.

B. JOURNEY ON TRANSFER.

(i) The travelling allowance will be regulated under S.R. 116, S.R. 116-A, 116-B, as the case may be, instead of under S.Rs. 121 and 122.

(ii) Cost of transporting personal effects upto the limit specified below shall be allowed in accordance with the provisions of S.R. 116(a) I(iii) and sub-clause II(iii) of that rule:-

- | | |
|--|-----------|
| (a) Government servant with family. | 5 maunds. |
| (b) Government servant with no family. | 3 maunds. |

The necessary amendments to the Supplementary Rules will be issued in due course.

2. The Governor-General is also pleased to decide that the daily allowance of eight annas prescribed for Government servants in the fourth grade under paragraph 3(d) of Finance Department Office Memorandum No. F.5(78)/RI/43, dated the 29th March 1944, shall be increased to ten annas. The increased rate will remain in force until further orders.

3. These orders will take effect from the 1st January 1948.
